

Card info update checklist

Take account of any automatic payments that are made with your current debit card. Once you have activated your new card, you'll want to update your payment information before your next billing cycle.

This could include:

- Monthly bills
  - Utilities
  - Phone/internet/cable
  - Streaming services
  - Gym membership
  - Child care
- Yearly subscriptions
  - Favorite apps
  - Online newspapers or magazines
- Payments made irregularly but automatically
  - Routine car maintenance
  - Lawn services
  - Pet grooming
- Miscellaneous payments
  - Shopping apps (Amazon, Target, Best Buy, etc.)
  - Food apps (Grubhub, Starbucks, Crumbl, Safeway, Instacart, etc.)
- Payments unique to you

If you use a digital wallet, like Visa® SRC, Apple Pay®, Samsung Pay® and Google Pay™, you'll want to be sure to update your information there as well.

Important! Make sure to add your specific needs. This list is not comprehensive for everyone.
